

FCC Commissioners
The Federal Communications Commission RE: Docket 04-435
445 12th Street, SW
Washington, DC 20554

Dear FCC Commissioners ,

I am writing to voice my concerns about the FCC's proposal to relax the restrictions on the use of cell phones on airplanes in flight.

I am concerned with safety issues first of all. There is no hard evidence that cell phone use doesn't interfere with navigational instruments. The introduction of cell phone use in the cabin will not only increase tension among passengers, it will compromise flight attendants' ability to maintain order in an emergency. Cell phone use could also enable terrorists to coordinate a plan of action more effectively.

Second, I think that the use of cell phones could make the plane ride very unpleasant for those of us who just want to rest or read. The flight is stressful enough without someone loudly talking next to you on their cellphone for much of the flight.

Please leave the current rules in effect.

Sincerely,

Babette Grunow
